Hey there! In November I decided to DRS my holy gme shares from IBKR. However, I noticed that IBKR didn't send them my cost basis. I'm an European ape. Actually, I'm Italian. I was wondering if this could be a problem. I think that it happens to those from some specific countries according to their countries' law. Any thought? Should I have to call them so that they can send them my cost basis to Computershare? Has it happened to anyone yet? Thank you so much!
