To start, I think we can all agree that the random selling of the other stock is a little strange. While I don't really care because it's not GME, it's still strange. Also the other stocks stocks response after also seemed interesting. But, the one thing that is extremely bullish is RCs silence. What if, RC sold his stock and is being silent because something is coming. GME acquiring buy buy buy baby could easily be bullish on both fronts. Do you remember when the other stock was running and gme wasn't moving until that random spike and halt up? Yea exactly. The other stock applies pressure which helps gme. But anyways, if gme acquire buy buy baby it would cause both the othee stock and gme to rip potentially leading to the you know where . RC could have sold and is being silent so when it happens he can't be pinned for market manipulation or insider trading .
