Received my splivy for GME and wanted to see what would happen if I tried to sell. Etrade let me place a good for day limit order at the paper handed price of $100,000 per share(I think this is the limit for now). I was thinking they might not allow it due to settlement etc... but it went through. I then changed it to GTC and received this rejection :

*Order Number: 528

*Order type: Sell

*Security: GME

*Term: GTC

*Price type: Limit at $100000

*Quantity: 8

*Reason: SOHO SLD REJECT : R 190:Limit price is too passive.

Limit price too passive = Etrade says I'm a paperhanded bitch.
