Hey everyone! hope you had a great new years. I just wanted to share my thoughts on why we're going to moon this month. Most of us know a shit ton of puts expire worthless after 1/28. J P morgan has acknowledged a squeeze is going to happen. I think Everything happening is them preparing for the MOASS. Ever gran d is going to default for the 69nd time on the 21st and the stars are aligning for gamestop to see the moon. I'm sure most of you also know that XRT is on the threshold and they're suppose to start covering to get off it. Well I think we're in the point in the game where non of it matters. We're in the endgame... again. They are going to artificially pump the markets to get more of retails money before the MOASS. Then they will blame "mean redittors" and china for the global downfall. From what I have gathered, the NFT marketplace has completed final stages of testing and we're just waiting on the release. I'd like to share with you some charts I colored on

This is the longest we have seen consistently red weeks. we're going on 7 weeks with the the MACD being negative. This is the first time that this has happened showing how desparate they are to keep the price down. To me it looks like 150 is the new 180. There is no volume, and any solid buying pressure is going to send gme flying. mayo boy is really struggling to survive just one more day.

Stoch is flat and ready to show a reversal as well.

SHF will continue to naked short to drop the price down. I'm guessing they will do this until their puts expire worthless. Cuz they really don't give a shit anymore. Diamond handed apes really just fucked up everything for them. GME has strong support at 140, but they will try to drop it below that (I don't think they will be able too) Funny to me how apes trully don't even care what the price is anymore. Hedge funds most really hate that.

I don't know if you guys have noticed. When the market is up, crypto is down. When crypto is up, the market is down. They can only do this juggling act for so long, before it all comes down.

I just wanted to show you that a coin c r a sh could happen simultaneously as gme moons.

None of this is financial advise and I ate all these crayons after I used them. I believe we will moon again during the squeeziversay, due to all the deep itm puts expiring worthless in combination with other things to really fuk the hedgies. I trust in R.C., I trust you guys, and We are all going to be very rich this year.

TLDR: I think we moon again during the squeeziversary
