

Title: I have proof of more Fuckery from the boys over a "E-tards" (E-trades) and while its not a major "Glitch" its more proof that these shares are hard to find.

Good afternoon Apes,

I do want to report more Fuckery from E-trade. To give you a brief history I am mostly all DRS and working on the Retirement accounts this week.

Before the Fido 12million share thing, I did leave 100 GME at each of the major players - I have since then moved it all to Computershare and DRS in my name.

One of my last tasks is to move a measly 90 GME from E-trade to Fidelity to DRS - Well twice, E-trade cancelled my order with no reason - Yes, two times the E-tards couldn't send Fidelity 90 shares of GME and the price keeps going down.

I know how to get it done, but wanted to show more illegal practices, It frustrates me that the brokers are not delivering on their obligations and the price still goes down. I want you to hang in there. The end is near and your investment will pay off one of these days.

*TLDR: Apes dont talk about E-trade too much, but they have cancelled a partial transfer twice for 90 GME - Brokers are still failing on their obligations and the price goes down - Stay strong, be strong - Ignore the FUD and DRS - the end is near!
