It all started as - a dividend is coming as an NFT.

Then we had - The new financial market.

And - The Metaverse and a Gamestop market place.

Well im just sitting here watching you-tube.

Every recording artist in the world could issue their content/ music clips digitally with an NFT attached. This would be the end of copyright violations, it would be the end of youtube and spotify if a new platform was set up that only allowed NFT versions of content. It would work the same for end users, ads/subscription/purchase.

It may help with direct payment to artists too with direct crypto payments Actually paying the artists... hang on a minute, isnt that the whole premise behind Once Upon A Time In Shaolin ?....
