So...today I was gathering all those Jim Cramer "how to short a company and then spread lies to manipulate the stock price your way" videos because there are quite a few new GME apes here who've likely never seen them or are even aware they exist...

...and which video does the simulation bring back first, front and fucking center?

"Cramer's Hedge Fund Tricks"

* It's 7:41 long

* ...AND...

* There's even a segment where Cramer gives hedge funds his thoughts on "dealing with the stress of losing money"

That's right: the simulation has been warning hedgies for at least 10 years, and using Jim Cramer as an unwitting, ironically prophetic instrument

I'll post the series of extremely damning Cramer videos soon- cheers all! ■■■
