For the past year I admit, I have been a lurking ape. Read the dd of others gave some thumbs up. However this time I was motivated to contribute. I wanted to do research. The topic "the 69 tweet". As an academic scientist in the geochemistry I started where every researcher starts. Google. Long story short, it turns out the first hit on google has a lot of videos featuring 69. Anyways, all this researching is hard, and now I am tired!

Gme to the moon!■■■
