For too long we have endured. For too long, we have accepted their corruption, their manipulation and their wrongdoings. I have seen so many of you, screaming for justice, yet no justice is within reach. I have seen you beg, yell, whisper and cry out in desperation for justice... But sadly, no justice will ever be served by your so called "protectors".

Unfortunately, it's up to us, the small people in the back, to let the world know. It's time for the world to understand, and for it to see the truth. I am SO proud of you all here, and the work you have put together to prove their corruption and lies. I am SO proud to be part of this movement, and i am SO proud, to be part of something so big, it's going to change the world forever.

But we are not done yet. Far from it. The potential MOASS will not be the end, it will be the beginning. It will change things, and it will change the world. MOASS or not, this world needs to change, and only WE can change it. I've seen you standing up in this sub, i've seen you show your true power and your true selves. I have seen JUSTICE, and i have seen POWER, from the few. I have seen YOU, the retail investor, stand up for yourselves, and be better.

This could be the change we need, or it could be a simple bump in the timeline. It's up to you to decide. Do you want to change the world, or do you want to follow the herd?

If you chose the former, if you want to change the world, i welcome you to join us at www.KenGriffinlies.com. I welcome you to join us in our brand new discord, to research, to dig deep, and to find the truth the 1% do NOT want you to know. Please, we need you. The world needs you. We need change, and we need it fast.

We want to find the truth, report it, and show the world that we "normal" people, are not just pawns in the game. We are the kings and gueens. We are together, and we are STRONG.
