A while ago I made a post stating MOASS would be on the 26th but I failed to realize that markets would be closed that day. So now I come to you with a revised post using even more retarded math.

First we take the 1 out from 12 so it's 1 and 2 then the 2 from 27 making it 2 and 7, now we combine similar numbers which the only similar numbers are both 2's making it 4. That's leaves us with 1 4 and 7, if we make those all one number it leaves us with 147 or for those of you with small wee wee's it's 74 1. (Had to put a space there cuz of community rules)
