Today 10:33 AM

I'm not bitter or anything but I would have doubled my money by now if you let me buy GME last week

I'm not bitter or anything but my nice soft blanket was in crate this morning which was interesting. Wonder how it got there

Wait GME i thought you were asking for game stop

Yes, GME.... GME is different than GameStop. It's a much less volatile stock. It's a great long-term play. I'm gonna buy a few shares.
