Just a long time lurker trying to kill FUD about selling as an international ape.

I wish I could personally check inside CS's website, but I am still waiting for my snailmail to arrive.

For more information about selling, I recommend visiting this page: Computershare Printable Forms. There you will find the 2 documents I believe have to be sent via snailmail to CS:

- 1. W-8BEN tax form, needed for a tax reduction depending on the country you are from. For more info check here.
- 2. [International Currency Payment Registration

Form](https://cda.computershare.com/Content/548aaf5c-7ece-47a3-9097-8366dcc9fbec), that allows you to receive your cash from dividends or sales outside the US in another currency rather than USD.

Please, my karma is low, so I would appreciate if somebody could share in other GME subs that might find this information useful, like Spielstopp, or suggest adding this info to one of the guides done about the whole CS process.

Not financial advice, I usually have no less than 5 crayons for breakfast.

Edit: So it's also possible to buy directly from CS using Wise.com. More info in a post made by u/n01u in another sub.
