Ok so this is gonna be my experience with evidence linked of drops and the eventual force call, I can only not prove my internet went out. This is going to be a long rambling run on sentence but I just wanted to share how I felt about my favorite stock and my experience.

So I call Fudelity about an hour ago after realizing my shares from the 8th should have landed, the bot changed (figures) I can no longer just say DRS(they added educational links ■, like ■ need your education ) as a dead end, so then I said transfer, they pushed me to the app, so finally I went straight to live person, bam get the prompt to the special live person link, cool, get a rep, cool, I say hi and so forth and ask for DRS through Computershare, reps super helpful asks if I want to 100% my 12 shares to my giant pile, I was like no because I lived by brokers for s DRS for wealth, I asked for 11, she went on was doing it no problem, then mid way I change my mind I say give me my full 12, in that moment I realized I wanted the stock more then ■s, they couldn't give me enough so she goes on, then o there's a issue with my system, ok so I wait i have patience III, eventually drop, ok that's fine I try again get trapped by the same DRS bot trap cause BBB, i ask for a live person and again get one but after a bit it drops ok fine w/e I finish getting home for lunch, connect to wifi and get dropped again after getting another one, this time the Wi-Fi went out for me and my SOs. Fine W/E I'll try mobile again, now I have a que, ok fine w/e I'm number 2 in line I'm patient indefinitely, so I ask around to my sibling and a Reddit ■ and now I'm back at 2 and then bam I get a super special specialist, cool different title same job, but again a system issue, now I have to call? Now the ■in me is getting hyped this is fudelity afterall a trillion dollar broker, so I get back to work and decided to take a moment to call, number is super sis because the phone system wants me to log into my account (umm no) so I keep banging 0 and shouting human cause me ■, finally get this super confident specialist broker or w/e and finally it seems like my DRS transfer is coming, NOPE they check the system preplexed and confused, he's certain I should have my stocks, it's past an hour since closed and this should have been the first to clear, guess they can't find my stock. So my DRS is post dated for tomorrow, so Mo-ass Friday cause my transfer needs to get through

Will add photos of screeenshot please be patient ■■(my phones super laggy now) (I can also add my siblings Convo with me)

This is Gmerica welcome to GameStop!
