Hello fellow superstonk member, are you interested in an opportunity to generate passive income off of your GameStop direct registered shares? There is currently a program that you can enroll in to do so. This involves the act of selling and rebuying your shares through computer share on a regular basis. The compensation is 25$ per share sold, up to a maximum of 40 shares a month. You can even use the extra profits to increase your gme position further if youd like! please respond with serious inquiries only and i look forward to speaking with you
