Hey all,

I was poking around the GameStop Blockchain website and decided to search Loopring. Up popped 10 results. I noticed the dates and they go back to October 20, 2021. Has this website and search function been around since then? If not, I think it's very cool they were populating this website with tons of helpful, searchable articles behind the scenes, brick by brick, until they had a beautiful catalogue to start with. Can't wait to see what this whole ecosystem turns into.

Peace!
