Silent Ape here,

I DRS'd my Roth IRA back in early Dec 2021, and just got an email from Ally today (2022-02-03) saying that they f\end{are going to count it as a distribution. Smooth brain here, but looks like Apex is back to doing shady sh*t again. If any wrinkle brains want to conclude why this is happening, feel free to chime in; I just think it's pretty funny how desperate they seem to be getting.

[Guess they need to find shares from somewhere, why not try and take it from retail IRAs](https://preview.r edd.it/s759de0nsof81.png?width=1365&format;=png&auto;=webp&s;=1be146dbb7e7c7f9248fe49c60580 a700a8cb026)

This account was only opened to DRS my Roth IRA shares, and not for any other activity. Anyway, I followed the method posted a while back where you send Ally a Letter of Instruction to conduct an in-kind outgoing transfer of GME shares to Computershare, and have Ally act as the custodian (which really ends in it being held by Apex). See letter I used below.

Everything went through fine with this, thanks to uVyouniversawme for the template.

And yes, I did get my letter from Computershare that I do indeed have an account with my IRA DRS'd shares in it.

[FBO = F^^ Bent Over ???](https://preview.redd.it/tj259dtaxof81.png?width=1018&format;=png&aut o;=webp&s;=8daa6eaa128e745804a6fdf07fc301742935d261)

Anyway, going to reach out to Ally support and ask them why the change of heart all-of-a-sudden? Not financial advice, and please send more purple crayons (all of mine went up my nose).

Heggies r fuk.
