TL;DR: MSM has continually reported on Melvin Capital's closure due to poor performance. MSM seems to want to push a hard narrative that Melvin are doing really bad, however, the other funds from Melvin capital actually show otherwise...Their brochure also shows a much high AUM than reported.

LOOK WHAT I GOT MY HANDS ON...

[SAUCE.](https://files.adviserinfo.sec.gov/IAPD/Content/Common/crd_iapd_Brochure.aspx?BRCHR_VR SN ID=755016) This has EVERYTHING to do how Melvin charges fees etc. I need eyes...

We're gonna come back to this I promise...

We've all seen this...

Notice the reduction from $8.7 billion to $5 billion? Melvin has ALWAYS held more than this. In fact, it is reported to the SEC and from themselves, the entire Melvin network actually manages...

Granted, it's been four months since then...but the inaccurate reporting tries to keep our eyes away from their other partner funds.

Did Melvin just report that they're still in the hole for GME?
So we know they have around $21 billion in AUM (assets under management). Well they legally have to break this down into how and whereonly by percentages.

Notice the $3 billion in "Corporations or other businesses not listed above". Well that is $3 billion that is NOT in any of Melvin's other funds so where is it?
