GameStop Corp. shares rose 4.3% to $122.50 in afterhours trading Wednesday after the videogame retailer's board declared a 4-for-1 stock split.

Stockholders of record at the close of business on July 18 will receive three additional shares of GameStop Class A common stock for each share of Class A common stock they hold.

Trading will begin on a stock split-adjusted basis on July 22, the Grapevine, Texas-based company said.

The company proposed the stock split in March, although at that time it didn't set the split ratio. It said then that it was seeking "flexibility for future corporate needs."

GameStop has a market capitalization of $9.15 billion, 76.13 million shares outstanding and a public float of 99.74 million shares.

The stock finished the day's regular sestion with a 2.4% loss, closing at $117.35 per share. Year to date, the stock has lost over 20%.
