BREAKING NEWS

Kenneth Cordele Griffin , Citadel Hedge Fund Mogul , died in a tragic plane accident over the atlantic during a return trip from europe. Circumstances still unclear. Plane still missing. (GME positions still unclosed)

That will be the news in a few days , this man is about to be "Epsteinized" , world changing investigation way too close.

Ofc there is always the possibility that theses DOJ investigations are just a spectacle , used to maintain an approximative facade of integrity of the judicial-financial system , and to put all this rotten stuff problem (politics-finance-private sector deep state) under the rug for another 10 years + (or until forced closure on their billions of short positions !).

I am really not so naive to believe that this corrupted DOJ and SEC , that has known the problem for years and even participated along with their famous "revolving door system" , can and will now , all of a sudden , bring this same system they are integral part of , in front of any real judicial threat.

If its indeed REAL , then , people will began to die , like a Scorsese movie , at this condition , I will take theses "Judicial procedures" seriously , and know shit just got instant real ,unfortunatly no street credibility for now , its just for show , which americans are so fan of.
